By the Glass

~Opus One 2003~

Napa Valley, California

$56.99

This wine presents a soft, rich entry; nuances of dark chocolate, black licorice and herbs linger to finish.

~Quintessa 2004~

Rutherford Napa Valley, California

$44.99

An opaque jet black robe leads to a bold attack, transitioning into a weighty layered mid-palate or infinite complexity and finishes with supple and exquisitely forged tannins.

~Dominus 2003~

Napa Valley, California

$39.99

The beautiful fall weather permitted the prolonged hang time, allowing the fruit to develop its complexity.

~Chateau Margaux, 1997~

Premier Grand Cru Classe, Bordeaux France

$56.99

The 1997 is remarkable for its great elegance and aromatic finesse, which are worthy of the great vintages, and also for harmony and balance on the palate, where the tannins are well integrated and smooth already.

~Corton 2003~

Grande Cru Bonneau du Martay, Burgundy France

$ 30.99

This Burgundy Pinot Noir is made from the traditional method, soft pressing, barrel fermentation in new oak and careful aging.

~Domaine Michel Niellon 2003~

Chassagne – Montrachet Clos De La Maltroie 1st Cru, Burgundy France

$ 29.99

Very ripe peach, herb and grass notes lead to a rich, full and sweet medium full flavors and have an opulent and unctuous quality yet this finishes with a bright and reasonable vibrant end.

~Heitz Cellar 2005~

Napa Valley, California

$14.99

This delicious wine moves smoothly and confidently onto the palate delivering a well-balanced citrus flavor and just a light touch of oak. A delightful expression of a varietals ripened in the Napa Valley Sun.
